

BPF Building our Future Programme

UKREiF 2024

With a general election just on the horizon, we've created an exciting UKREiF programme with our partners that delves into the four pillars of our general election manifesto 'Building our Future'. These are: Building for Productivity and Growth, Building More Homes, Building Stronger Town Centres and Building the Green Economy.

08.30 – 10.00 Invite only	BPF DELIVERING RESIDENTIAL GROWTH AMBITIONS IN REGIONAL CITIES The BPF's Election Manifesto sets out the challenge for the next Government to deliver more homes. Specifically, it calls on the Government to deliver more Build to Rent, to increase affordable housing, to unlock supply through older people's housing, and to modernise housing. The current Government has recently set out aspirations to increase housing delivery in many of our city centres and many local authorities have set ambitious housing targets for their city centres to promote regeneration and limit greenbelt release. The purpose of this roundtable is to bring together industry leaders across sectors to consider the opportunities and challenges for increasing the delivery of homes in our regional cities. . <small>MANIFESTO PILLAR – Building More Homes</small>	Cushman & Wakefield St Paul's House 23 Park Square South Leeds LS1 2ND
