

BPF EVENTS

Learning, developing & networking

FLAGSHIP EVENTS

We hold a series of flagship events – the real estate industry’s most eagerly anticipated dates each year – typically bringing together 300-600 of the industry’s leaders and innovative forward-thinkers.

04 Feb 2019	The National Residential Investment Conference and Dinner The Landmark London Hotel, 222 Marylebone Road, London NW1 6JQ
02 May 2019	BPF Tomorrow’s Leaders Awards Terrace Pavilion, House of Commons, Westminster, London SW1A 0AA
02 Jul 2019	BPF Annual Conference RIBA, 66 Portland Place, London W1B 1AD
02 Jul 2019	BPF Summer Reception RIBA, 66 Portland Place, London W1B 1AD
06 Nov 2019	BPF Annual Dinner Guildhall, Gresham Street, London EC2V 7HH

PRIVATE/PUBLIC SECTOR DISCUSSION ROUNDTABLES

We regularly hold discussion roundtables and dinners to bring the private and public sectors together. Recent roundtables included:

- Nick Walkley, Chief Executive, Homes England
- Graeme Craig, Director, Commercial Development, Transport for London
- Gareth Bradford, Deputy Director, Ministry of Housing, Communities & Local Government
- Nigel Foster, Strategy Director, Transport for the North

PARTNERSHIP WITH GOVERNMENT

This year, we are working in partnership with the Department for International Trade to represent the UK real estate industry on the global stage:

Three-day programme for DIT at MIPIM 2019
12-15 Mar 2019

GREAT PLACES EVENTS

As part of our ongoing Great Places campaign, we are holding a series of events to promote best practice in delivering great places.

Members can benefit from tailored sponsorship opportunities at all of the flagship events, and can also sponsor ‘in kind’ by hosting policy seminars, dinners and other events.

Contact Georgina Worrall, Head of Events: gworral@bpf.org.uk, 020 7802 0109

BPF EVENTS

Learning, developing & networking

POLICY SEMINARS

We hold numerous seminars every year (breakfast and early evening events), showcasing expert insight into the latest real estate policy developments and offering unequalled networking opportunities.

The topics include:

Planning conferences: Including events on the London Plan.

Diversity & Inclusion conferences: Raising awareness and sharing best D&I practice.

Finance and tax workshops: Interactive sessions with HMRC.

Heritage seminars: Protecting our heritage assets and driving regeneration, with Historic England.

Sustainability workshops: Sustainable development, Minimum Energy Efficiency Standards.

Brexit seminars: What will Brexit mean for the real estate industry?

BPF FUTURES EVENTS

BPF Futures is our network for professionals with less than 10 years' experience working in real estate. The network is holding a variety of events, including seminars, site visits, networking events and working groups in London and the regions.

'If I was a real estate investor' workshop
Manchester, Feb 2019

Speed networking event
London, March 2019

BPF Futures/YEP PropTech Event
London, March 2019

BPF Futures/Homes England seminar
London, April 2019

BPF futures

REGIONAL ACTIVITIES

We hold regular events and meetings around the UK, including policy focused seminars, lunches, dinners, networking receptions and report launches.

Our quarterly standing regional fora are held in Manchester, Leeds, Liverpool, Newcastle, Birmingham, Cardiff and Bristol.

To learn more, contact our Head of Regional Policy & Engagement:

Will Bushby
wbushby@bpf.org.uk
07741 140398

Members can benefit from tailored sponsorship opportunities at all of the flagship events, and can also sponsor 'in kind' by hosting policy seminars, dinners and other events.

Contact Georgina Worrall, Head of Events: gworrall@bpf.org.uk, 020 7802 0109